

LEADERSHIP SOCIETIES AND NETWORKS

WE FIGHT FOR OUR COMMUNITY'S FUTURE

UWECI leadership societies connect our most passionate donors. Together, we tackle today's issues by creating lasting change. Membership enables you to create a strong relationship with both your community and others who share your commitment.

LEADERSHIP NETWORKS

Young Leaders Society (YLS)
Chair: Donita Sanderson
Donors age 40 or younger who give $250+

YLS recognizes emerging community leaders aged 40 or younger. YLS designates 10% to programs supporting early childhood literacy. Members also organize events such as the Time for Art: A Celebration of Volunteers silent art auction, the Board Orientation and Leadership Development (BOLD) series, and Volunteers on Tap.

Labor Leadership Giving Society
Chair: Randy Sconyers
Union members who give $350+

Labor Leadership recognizes Union members who demonstrate commitment to caring for one another and those most in need. Locally, the Community Services Liaison serves as a contact between Hawkeye Labor Council, AFL-CIO, and UWECI. The Hawkeye Labor Council has 40+ affiliated Unions with members who support United Way. Together, local Unions and UWECI continue to impact the quality of the labor force and working families in our community.

Women United
Chair: Wendy Nielsen
Donors who give $500+ to Women United

Women United brings together funds and resources to ensure the well-being of women in need. The group partners with UWECI funded partners to provide prescription assistance, emergency dental care, vision care, medical co-pays, diabetic testing supplies, and care coordination for un- and under-insured women. Members organize and participate in events such as the Women United Luncheon and Power of the Purse silent auction.

LEADERSHIP SOCIETIES

William B. Quarton Society
Donors who give $500–1,249

Quarton Society was named in honor of Bill Quarton. During his lifetime, he championed Cedar Rapids with his philanthropy.

T.M. Sinclair Society
Donors who give $1,250–9,999

UWECI's first philanthropic leadership society was named after one of our area's founding fathers, Thomas M'Elderry Sinclair, who believed in teaching children to read and write and was committed to the development of Cedar Rapids.
