

LEADERSHIP SOCIETIES AND NETWORKS

WE STRIVE FOR OUR COMMUNITY'S FUTURE

UWECI leadership societies connect our donors to what they are most passionate about. Membership enables you to create a strong relationship with both your community and others who share your commitment.

LEADERSHIP NETWORKS

Young Leaders Society (YLS)
Chair: Hilary Hershner
Donors age 40 or younger who give $250+

YLS recognizes emerging community leaders aged 40 or younger and works to increase overall UWECI engagement and volunteerism for younger generations. Members help organize events such as Time for Art: A Celebration of Volunteers, Board Orientation and Leadership Development (BOLD) series, and Volunteers on Tap.

Labor Leadership Giving Society
Chair: Troy Sauter
Union members who give $350+

Labor Leadership recognizes union members who commit to caring for one another and those most in need. Locally, the Community Services Liaison serves as a contact between Hawkeye Labor Council, AFL-CIO, and UWECI. The Hawkeye Area Labor Council has 40+ affiliated unions with members who support United Way. Together, we continue to impact the quality of the labor force and working families in our community.

Women United
Chair: Peg Brake
Donors who give $500+ to Women United

Women United brings together funds and resources to ensure the well-being of women in need. The group partners with UWECI funded partners to provide prescription assistance, emergency dental care, vision care, medical co-pays, diabetic testing supplies, and care coordination for un- and under-insured women. Members organize and participate in events such as the Women United Luncheon and Power of the Purse silent auction.

LEADERSHIP SOCIETIES

William B. Quarton Society
Donors who give $500–1,249

The Quarton Society was named in honor of Bill Quarton. During his lifetime, he championed Cedar Rapids with his belief in community philanthropy and dedication to giving back.

T.M. Sinclair Society
Donors who give $1,250–9,999

As UWECI's first philanthropic leadership society, this group was named after one of our area's founding fathers, Thomas M'Elderry Sinclair. He believed in teaching children to read and write and was committed to the development of Cedar Rapids.

Keystone	$7,500–9,999	Pillar	$5,000–7,499
Cornerstone	$2,500–4,999	Builder	$1,250–2,499

Tocqueville Society members are true philanthropists and leaders who give their time and generosity to create long-lasting solutions for our community's most pressing issues.
