

LEADERSHIP SOCIETIES AND NETWORKS

We Fight For Our Community's Future

UWECI leadership societies connect our donors to what they are most passionate about. Joining a leadership network or society enables you to create a strong relationship with both your community and others who share your commitment to giving back.

> LEADERSHIP SOCIETIES:

WILLIAM B. QUARTON SOCIETY

Donors who give $500-1,249

The Quarton Society was named in honor of Bill Quarton. During his lifetime, he championed Cedar Rapids with his belief in community philanthropy and dedication to giving back.

T.M. SINCLAIR SOCIETY

Donors who give $1,250-9,999

As UWECI's first philanthropic leadership society, this group was named after one of our area's founding fathers, Thomas M'Elderry Sinclair. He believed in teaching children to read and write and was committed to the development of Cedar Rapids.

> LEADERSHIP NETWORKS:

EMERGING LEADERS UNITED (ELU)

Donors who give $250+

ELU recognizes and connects engaged, driven individuals to make a difference and address the most critical needs of our community. ELU energizes individuals to create lasting change in Eastern Iowa VIA United Way with volunteer opportunities, advocacy efforts, and giving. Individuals also receive engagement opportunities and attend educational and networking events.

WOMEN UNITED

Donors who give $500+ to Women United
2025 CHAIR: JILL LANGE

Women United brings together funds and resources to ensure the well-being of women in need. Women United empowers funded partners to provide prescription assistance, emergency dental care, vision care, medical co-pays, diabetic testing supplies, and care coordination for un- and under-insured women. Donors help organize and participate in events such as the Women United Luncheon and Power of the Purse auction.
